OVERVIEW:

In every job or profession, knowing how to properly communicate with people who are angry or hostile are “life skills” that everyone needs. The ability to control and diffuse a potentially violent person or situation before it gets out of control isn’t just being professional, it could be life saving. This interactive, high energy course focuses on a “common sense” approach to personal and workplace safety and developing a functional and effective “Plan of Action” in staying safe.

Topics covered include: • Personal Safety Plan • Survival Basics • Understanding Basic Human Needs • Violence Indicators • Trigger Events • Violence Resistance
